Hey Matt:

I am sure you understand that Sunlust, your client, would like to speak with you before you make any deals with opposing counsel. Sunlust is willing to fight Syfert's extortion attempts on the merits. And Sunlust is prepared to bring in independent counsel to alleviate you of any burden in this case.

Just to reiterate, Sunlust fully supports your stance that you failure to appear at the hearing was not purposeful. Everyone agrees that your exposure is limited if at all present for his minor unintentional mistake.

When are you available to talk?

Brett,

I appreciate Sunlust's acknowledgement that my absence at the November 27, 2012 hearing was completely unintentional and inadvertent given Mr. Torres' appearance at the hearing, and an Order granting his substitution of counsel in the other 7 cases made it an understandable mix-up.

However, I no longer intend to continue as local counsel for Prenda Law or counsel for Sunlust Pictures, LLC. I will not be filing anything on behalf of Sunlust or Prenda Law, nor will I be participating in the conversation with Mark Lutz tomorrow morning. I'm out of this case. The only thing that I will do moving forward is what the law and the rule of ethics require me to do, and I will continue to press my Motion seeking to Withdraw.

I have attached my Formal Letters of Termination. You have until Monday at Noon, December 3, 2012 to find independent counsel to substitute out as you indicated you would.

RE: 8:12-cv-01685 Sunlust Pictures LLC v. Tuan Nguyen; Termination of Representation/Of Counsel Agreement

Dear Mr. Gibbs and/or Principal for Sunlust Pictures, LLC:

Please be advised that I can no longer represent you in the Case No. FL Middle District 8:12-cv-01685. This notification is intended for you to find alternate legal representation in these matters. As discussed via telephone on November 27, 2012 with Mr. Gibbs, my failure to appear at the scheduled hearing on the same day was completely inadvertent as I was under the impression an Order had been entered to substitute Mr. Torres as counsel in place of myself. This was based the fact that Mr. Torres had filed a Notice of Appearance and a subsequent Motion to Withdraw after the Motion to Substitute Counsel was filed. I appreciate Sunlust Pictures' understanding that this was an accidental mix-up and their preference to retain me as their local counsel. Unfortunately, I will no longer be able represent Sunlust, or serve as Of-Counsel/Local Counsel to Prenda Law due to the ongoing issues and ethical concerns regarding this case. As such, you will need to immediately find new counsel in this matter.

PLEASE BE ADVISED, if Sunlust Pictures, LLC wishes to pursue an Appeal or a Motion for a New Trial/Amended Judgment, then it needs to be filed within the time frames pursuant to Rule 4 ("the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 must be filed with the district clerk within 30 days after entry of the judgment or order appealed from") and Rule 59 ("A motion for a new trial must be filed no later than 28 days after the entry of judgment"), respectively, of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. As such, time is of the essence for a new attorney to come aboard.

I have requested Prenda Law to have a Motion to Withdraw and Substitute Counsel ready for me to file no later than next week Monday, December 3, 2012 at 12:00 Noon Eastern Time to ensure a smooth transition.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation in this matter.

Brett,

I left a message with your office earlier this afternoon, but have not heard back. I was calling to reiterate my position as no longer representing Sunlust or Prenda Law, and my intention to renew my Motion to Withdraw as there had still not been independent counsel presented to replace me.

Additionally, with the Motion for Sanctions filed against me individually, and separately against Prenda Law, due to the ethical considerations with the case, I will not be able to file anything on behalf of Sunlust or Prenda Law.

I will be filing a Response to the Motion for Sanctions against me on my own behalf, along with a Renewed Motion to Withdraw.

Thanks,

RE: 8:12-cv-01685 Sunlust Pictures LLC v. Tuan Nguyen; Termination of Representation/Of Counsel Agreement

Dear Mr. Adleman:

Enclosed please find my Notice of Termination of of-counsel agreement and representation letters to Prenda Law and Sunlust Pictures, LLC that I have previously emailed and sent certified mail to your California Counsel, Brett Gibbs of Prenda Law. Recently, a Motion for Sanctions against Prenda Law was filed, as well as a Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs in the above captioned case.

As Mr. Gibbs was made aware, due to the nature of the sanctions against myself individually, and against Prenda Law separately, that I have a conflict of interest in this case along with significant ethical concerns regarding Prenda Law's operation. I appreciate Sunlust's support in the above case that my failure to appear at the November 27, 2012 hearing was completely unintentional. Unfortunately, due to the conflict of interests, I am no longer able to represent Sunlust Pictures, LLC, as Mr. Gibbs was made aware back on October 3, 2012, and was reaffirmed in my letters dated November 30, 2012.

Mr. Gibbs noted that Sunlust Pictures, LLC's principals are out of the country, and he has been the point of contact for all matters relating to this case. A such, I have directed the previous letters to Mr. Gibbs for proper handling to forward to Sunlust's principals. However, in an abundance of caution, I am sending all the information regarding the case to you, the registered agent for Sunlust Picutres, LLC.

PLEASE BE ADVISED, if Sunlust Pictures, LLC wishes to pursue an Appeal or a Motion for a New Trial/Amended Judgment, then it needs to be filed within the time frames pursuant to Rule 4 ("the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 must be filed with the district clerk within 30 days after entry of the judgment or order appealed from") and Rule 59 ("A motion for a new trial must be filed no later than 28 days after the entry of judgment"), respectively, of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Further, pursuant to Local Rule 3.01(b) provides only 14 days from the date of the Motion for Attorney's Fees was filed to respond. As such, time is of the essence for a new attorney to come aboard and I recommend finding independent counsel immediately.

I have enclosed all case filings since I filed my Notice of Appearance in this case. Thank you for your attention and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

RE: 8:12-cv-01685 Sunlust Pictures LLC v. Tuan Nguyen; Termination of Representation/Of Counsel Agreement

Dear Mr. Gibbs and/or Principal for Sunlust Pictures, LLC:

Please be advised that an Order was entered on December 28, 2012, formally granting the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss in the above captioned matter. I have enclosed the Order for your review. As previously mentioned, I no longer represent Sunlust Pictures, LLC in the case due to a conflict of interests and serious ethical concerns regarding the operation of Prenda Law.

PLEASE BE ADVISED, if Sunlust Pictures, LLC wishes to pursue an Appeal or a Motion for a New Trial/Amended Judgment, then it needs to be filed within the time frames pursuant to Rule 4 ("the notice of appeal required by Rule 3 must be filed with the district clerk within 30 days after entry of the judgment or order appealed from") and Rule 59 ("A motion for a new trial must be filed no later than 28 days after the entry of judgment"), respectively, of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. As I can no longer represent Sunlust Pictures, LLC; and/or act as local counsel to Prenda Law; if you plan to appeal this Order, I would suggest finding new counsel immediately. For appeal time purposes, while the Order was not entered officially until December 18, 2012; in an abundance of caution I would utilize the November 27, 2012, hearing date to file an appeal/motion for amended judgment. As such, a new attorney should be hired immediately to represent Sunlust.

Further, I have continually tried to get in touch with you regarding this case and advised multiple times that I am not be able to represent Sunlust and/or Prenda Law in this matter, but to date none of my correspondence/phone calls have been returned. Therefore, please advise immediately as to the status of new counsel coming on to handle this case immediately.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

/s/Matthew T. Wasinger
